Remarks:

The attached comments on intelligence literature are transmitted in the hope that they might be helpful in considering the questions raised by Dr. Kent. Also, as an immediate point, this is the type of matter in which we could make some use of people like [redacted] He, however, would fill only a small part of the gap. In any case, I understand you probably cannot handle him in (over) your slots and I have no slot or probability of a slot to which I could assign him. If the administrative problem can be worked out, we could keep him usefully employed from our point of view on work that I think would be profitable for him. I do not see, however, how I could justify utilizing a military slot for this purpose.
